We are looking for a baby to star in our Christmas pageant! Our beautiful tradition here at St. Monica's is to have a real baby play the baby Jesus in our Christmas pageant, and in our community, you'll find a whole host of proud former baby Jesus actors! The baby is held by Mary (a teenager) on the altar for the pageant (about 15 minutes). Do you know a baby between 2 and 10 months old of any gender who would make a great Jesus? Parents can email our pageant director at jessica.tette@dor.org to sign their baby up.

Seeking a Children's Liturgy Leader

Have you ever considered leading Children's Liturgy of the Word? This is the Holy Spirit calling YOU! Jessica is in search of a children's liturgy leader for one Sunday of the month (either 1st or 3rd Sundays). Lead by yourself or bring a friend to help you. Help our young children know the great love of God. CASE training is required! Contact jessica.tette@dor.org to answer the Holy Spirit's call!

Please join us at coffee hour on Sunday, December 28th after the 10:15 Mass, where we will share photos and memories of the trip.

St. Monica's Welcome Committee sponsored a soup supper after the 4:00 PM Mass on Saturday, December 13. Six different soups, salad, bread, and many desserts were enjoyed by parishioners from both St. Monica's and Immaculate Conception/St. Bridget's. Sister Carol Cimino also gave a thoughtful Advent reflection. Thank you to JoAnn DeMott and her team for organizing the event!

Creation Corner

The light shines in the darkness and the darkness cannot overcome it.

Today is the Winter Solstice – the longest night of the year. As far back as we can tell, human beings have observed the movement from darkness back to light.

Incised in rocks from Irish hilltops to Chaco Canyon, New Mexico, we find spirals struck by a shaft of light on the winter solstice designed to mark the shattering of the deep darkness. Romans celebrated Saturnalia ending in the Feast of the Invincible Sun, and when Christians could worship openly, it became the time we chose to celebrate the coming of the Son of God.

By Christmas morning, the days will be growing longer. The Light of the World comes just as the light in our world expands!

So many of our Christmas and Advent traditions involve light: Advent wreath candles, lights on the tree, lights in the windows, or a candle set on a mantle or table. Tonight, on the Solstice, and every night until Christmas, make time each evening to sit with only the lights and candles of Christmas. Allow yourself to sense and notice how the warm glow casts a special atmosphere. Allow the peace and meaning of Christ's coming to seep into your heart and mind, quieting whatever other scrambling we might still be doing and reminding us: the people who walked in darkness have seen a great light.

May the light of Christ shine brightly in your heart, dispelling the cold and darkness, this Christmastide and throughout all your life.

St. Monica Neighborhood Connection

Jesus, who is my neighbor?

We can be the Light of Christ's presence to our neighborhood businesses even on a holiday. For those who might need them on Christmas Day, here are a couple of neighborhood restaurants that give up some of their Christmas holiday time to remain open for serve the community.

Chili Family Diner at 945 Chili Ave. is open 365 days a year, with full-service dine-in and take-out for breakfast and lunch. The diner offers comfort food and excellent service. Christmas hours are 7 a.m. to noon. Call 464-8820 to order take-out for pick-up.

The Wok restaurant at 912 Genesee St. will be open from 11 a.m.- 9 p.m. on Christmas day. The Wok features Chinese, Vietnamese and Thai favorites. Its super-fast service is now entirely take-out and delivery. Call 235-7888 to order ahead.

Social Justice News

This weekend, we are being asked to compose a brief and anonymous note to people incarcerated in NYS facilities. Cards will be distributed at weekend Masses. The notecards are preprinted on one side with "The Light of Christ" and on the other with "A Message of Hope" and the salutation, "Dear Friend in Christ.". Please take a minute and add your own personal thoughts or greetings and the cards will be collected and distributed to incarcerated inmates. End your note with a simple message like "A friend of Jesus" or "Yours in Christ." Do not sign your name.

If you would like to be part of the Social Justice team at St. Monica or if you would like to be informed/updated on events, contact Dan at danlill126@gmail.com or 585-313-6027.
